The Talent Show

"Our class will be putting on a talent show. We will put it on next week," said Mrs. Frank. "Horray!" Kaitlin cried.

Kaitlin walked home from school. She sat on the front steps of her house, thinking of what act she would do. Gymastics? No. Baseball? No. Poetry? No. Jokes? Yes! Kaitlin finally knew what to do for the talent show.

She walked into town and went to the library. She looked in the joke book section and found plenty of books on jokes. She picked out four joke books and went to check them out.

The librarian at the check out desk said that she had some books out that were overdue. Kaitlin asked the librarian if she could hold the books for her. "I can, but you must bring your overdue books back," she said. "I will go get them right now," said Kaitlin. She got the books and took out the joke books. She practiced and practiced.

Finally, it was the day. The day that they would have the talent show.

She went to school at 7:00 that night and asked her best friend, Gabby what she was going to do for the talent show.
