

One Day In Elsa's Shoes

Dear Diary,

Everything is horrible! Everyday it gets worse, I sometimes don't know if I should have any hope that anything good could ever happen during this past time, it is just getting to hard for all of us. It seems like this war is never going to end for all the Jew's. We where living in a house intill they send me and all family to a Ghetto with only two bedrooms,at a apartment. Then they send us to a concentration camp named Dachau. I was going to school intill they brought us here, Even though my grandma helps me keep me up with school work. I am so hungry and thirsty, they only give us 4 pieces of bread, and the water they give us is dirty and black, I sometimes don't really have the guts to drink that, but really there isn't any chose. I just wish that my old live was back to normal. I just don't get why they don't like us, well yeah its true we are from different religions and yeah we don't all have blond hair like hitler wants it, but we are still humans right?For people we are like if we never existed, they destroy our life day by day and night by night. I don't know what to think so many things we have to live through and had to watch people get tortured. It's not fair while we get tortured they have good lives watching us die. The time passed and I got very sick I really don't know what is going to happen next, but last night while I was sleeping I overheard mother talking with father, mother was telling father that if I don't get better I could get sent to a death camp where I could get separated from my family and get killed. I am sad, sick and there is nothing I could do. I will have to say good-bye because this is the last time I will be writing in this diary. Good-bye until other time, I hope.

Your friend,

Elsa
