The Mission
The core value and primary purpose of Morristown High School, with its large and diverse population, is to foster a community in which learning is meaningful, challenging, and lifelong, and where the expectations of growth, individual understanding, excellence, and creativity exist for all students and staff in a dynamic and academic environment. This mission will be achieved through a research-based process of continuous and collaborative planning, implementation, and evaluation.

The School
Morristown High School is a comprehensive, four-year secondary school that serves an ethnically and socially diverse student population of over 1850 students. A microcosm of the new millennium, Morristown High School is rich in economic, racial, and cultural diversity. Some families have been in the district for generations, while others have only recently immigrated to the United States.
Morristown High School offers a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, including 29 Advanced Placement Courses and 33 Honors level courses. Our students maximize opportunities to sample and explore emerging career fields in areas such as technology, music, visual and performing arts, and the medical and science fields. Morristown High School provides an extensive program of interscholastic sports, co-curricular activities, and performing arts.

Outstanding Characteristics:
- More than 280 diverse courses (including Honors and Advanced Placement)
- The STEM Academy enables students to experience an in-depth study of continuous programming in math and science.
- The Humanities Academy offers students in-depth exploration of literature, current events, and history’s impact on the present.
- Morristown High School’s Senior Options program offers students the opportunity to enroll in college coursework or obtain real-world experience in areas they wish to pursue in the future.
- Selected multiple times as one of Newsweek magazine’s Nation’s Best High Schools.
- Selected multiple times by New Jersey Monthly magazine as one of the Top 75 public high schools in New Jersey.
- Recognized by New Jersey historian and author John T. Cunningham as the subject of Youth’s Bright Years: An American High School.
- Staff, parents, and students are actively involved in an initiative focused on an ongoing comprehensive and self-reflective review of all policies, practices, and procedures that impact teaching and learning.
- The Morris Education Foundation (MEF) and several community groups complement the active Home & School Association (HSA) that supports Morristown High School initiatives.

Accreditation
Morristown High School is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the New Jersey Department of Education.
School Climate

Students:
- Ethnic Background: 54% White, 32% Hispanic, 9% African American, and 5% Asian/Pacific Islanders/Multiracial/Native American
- Represent more than 19 different native languages
- 83% of the Class of 2018 attended two or four year colleges/universities after graduation
- Morristown High School students actively participate in school life on a broad academic and co-curricular level:
  - More than 40 co-curricular activities are offered in addition to 26 varsity athletic teams.
  - Students hold positions on key decision making teams that affect the school climate.
  - Students compete in academic contests in science, mathematics, world language, speech and debate.
  - High quality acting, vocal and instrumental music programs have enabled students to participate in All-State choirs, bands, orchestras and performing arts competitions.
  - 74 seniors participate in a highly selective Peer Group leadership program that supports incoming freshmen.
  - Students gain valuable broadcast experience through their work in our public radio station, WJSV-FM, and our in-house television studio.
  - Students write for the MorristownPatch.com news website, produce a yearbook, literary magazine and newspaper.
  - Visual Arts and Graphic Design students contribute designs to the high school environment, publications, and participate in community exhibitions. Many student artists are local, state, and national award recipients.
- Students are actively involved in community service, through a wide variety of organizations and experiences.

Staff:
The professional staff includes 157 educators with 60% having graduate degrees (7 Doctorates; 87 Masters). Many graduates return as members of the professional staff. Morristown High School alumni, along with other staff members, are committed to making the school even better for its students.
