

Third Grade Unit 1-Readers Build Great Reading Habits

In this Unit Readers Will:

Stay focused on their independent reading.

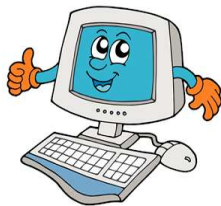

Ask, answer, and confirm their questions by providing text evidence to demonstrate understanding.

Understand new vocabulary like schema, stamina, decode, synonyms, and skim reading.

Determine clues in context for greater comprehension and understanding.

Know what it means to refer back to the story for text support.

Decode and determine the meaning of tricky words.

Ideas for Home:

Check to see if your child is selecting books that are just right for independent reading.

Encourage your child's reading at home each night to build reading stamina and practice reading fluently.

Discuss the book your child is reading with him/her.

Ask your child questions about the book. Then ask him/her to provide you with evidence from the text to support the answers.
